

A Word from Sister Gwen

Beloved Reader,

Greetings in the Name of Jesus Christ, the Lord of Glory, with the encouraging words He gave us in Luke 21:28, “And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.”

We are hastening to the finishing line. The Age of Grace is coming to a close. Jesus said the sign would be, “When ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh” (Luke 21:20). And there is no doubt that the armies, the nations of the world, are in alignment against Israel, and the God of Israel. Americans may not be in sympathy with the pressure that our leaders are putting on Israel, but we put in office those who are fulfilling this prophetic word. And even before they came into power, we have played a two-faced charade with Israel—we have patted her on the back while we sent tanks to Jordan to fight her. I remember standing, with my brother Earl, and my father, Ed Bergman, at the outskirts of Bethany, and watching as the Israeli army came rolling past with dozens of great military tanks they had captured in a skirmish with Jordan at the border of Israel and Jordan. Israel, with their usual humour joked, “Let the Americans send us their tanks via Jordan. We get them free that way!”

Jesus is not trying to scare us. He is just giving us a “sign of the times.” And we need to wake up to the next great thing that is about to happen, which is not for our destruction, but for our full and complete redemption. The word “redemption” is apolutrosis in Greek. It means “full payment for deliverance from captivity or from sin, freedom from bondage.” This is graphically described in Romans 8:21, “The creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.”

Our day of captivity and bondage is almost over. What we have now, as born-again Christians, is only the earnest (down-payment) of what we shall yet have and be of the Glory that is in store for us. The best is yet to come—and it is coming very soon. Jesus is ready, and at the door. The armies of Heaven are already engaged in the final battle.

This morning, as I was asking the Lord what He wanted me to say to you, He showed me the great warfare that is raging right now in the heavens. Hosts of demonic spirits are fighting the end-time battle with the mighty angelic angels. What is taking place here on earth in the Middle East, and in the Far East, is nothing compared to what is happening in the heavens. If it wasn't for the prayers of the saints, thousands of our military would be coming home in body-bags—if they could even be brought back.

Satan is trying to bring the full scale of that end-time battle down to earth, but the angels are still keeping it off our shores because, “for ten righteous, God will save a city.” Our prayers help the fighting angels to keep the hosts of hell up there a little longer. They also keep God from destroying the world because of its wickedness. We are the salt of the earth. We are the light of the world. When God was getting ready to destroy Sodom, He sent two angels to make an “inspection tour” of the city. They commanded Lot, “Haste thee, escape thither: for I cannot do anything till thou be come thither” (Genesis 19:22).

When the trumpet sounds, and the angels are commissioned to gather the righteous out of the coming judgment for man's great sins, then all hell will break loose on earth. There will be nothing to hinder him. 2 Thessalonians 2:7 clearly states, “The mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth [restraineth] will let [restrain, or hold him back], until he be taken out of the way, and then shall that Wicked be revealed [the antichrist], which the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.” And then St Paul goes on to describe the antichrist, and how he will deceive all those who do not love the truth. The antichrist will deceive many by signs and wonders, and by his flatteries (charm). Daniel said, that “some of them of understanding shall fall” (Daniel 11:34). I believe he is referring to the Jews who will support this evil leader. But through this, they will be purged, and awakened to the truth of whom their True Messiah is.

You say, do we have to go through all this? All I can do is answer you with the same chapter I quoted when Jesus was talking about these times: He said, “And take heed to yourselves, lest that at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting [debauchery], and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. For as a snare shall it come on all the earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass; and to stand before the son of man” (Luke 21:34-36).

Two great events are NOW beginning to take place, simultaneously.

THE FIRST: The world and the people in it are becoming ever more sinful, cruel, demonized, weak, and so cowardly they refuse to take a stand against evil. It is a time of great compromise. Men turning into devils, and letting demons take over their lives. Many are even stooping to worship Satan. Much of the media is under the control of the spirit of compromise. They refuse to tell the truth. The same is happening in many of the pulpits. People are “selling their souls” to be “politically correct” and for their job-security. The time has come when you can “buy a man for a dollar.”

THE SECOND: The elect of God are standing up in a time of darkness, and acting with a courage that has not been seen since the founding of this nation by our Early Fathers. They will begin to live sanctified and holy lives, walk and conduct themselves in purity and righteousness. They will be the Enochs, the Noahs, the glorified saints, who will walk in the Fullness of the Glory of their inheritance while still here on this earth. They will walk so close to God until they receive the Enoch anointing. “And Enoch walked with God: and he was not: for God took him” (Genesis 5:24).

If you are one who had determined long ago to “put your head on the block” for Truth, I commend you to God. All the angels of Heaven are watching over you. And I want to encourage you with the words of Jesus, “Let not your heart be troubled!”

Do You Have a Christian Will?

Statistics indicate that 70% of Americans do not have a last will and testament. Many think they don't have enough assets to need one, or perhaps they have just put off making one. But if you die without one, your state will intervene and follow its laws regarding how your assets are divided to your heirs. If you want to bless a friend or ministry, unless you give those gifts before you pass away, or specify them in your legal last will and testament, your heart's desire won't happen. You might even leave a family squabble behind.

If, when you are passing into the Kingdom of God, you have made provision to give into the ministry, your gift will go on saving souls and building that Kingdom on earth. You can greet the souls your gift helped bring in as they arrive in Heaven!

DON'T PROCRASTINATE! Make out your will today. If you are interested in remembering End-Time Handmaidens and Servants in your will, call (870) 446-2252 and ask for Sandra Baldwin.

Dear Sister Gwen

Dear Sister Gwen Shaw,

I just finished reading The Revival Call article about George Washington and the visitation of the angel, Union.

In 2005, I was attending a Kathie Walters/Bob Jones conference. I saw a vision of the flag of the United States of America flying in a cloud of glory. Two angels were circling the flag. Their names were Love and Union.

In October, 2008, I was attending a David Barton Pastor's conference in Austin, Texas. A gentleman was carrying a flag across the front of the room and we were singing, God Bless America. I heard the Holy Spirit say, "the angels of Love and Union are still circling the flag."

I am writing to thank you for publishing the article of the vision of George Washington as well as the introduction by Bert Crevier. I am sure you will receive many confirmations.

Carolyn Sissom, Pastor, Eastgate Ministries, Inc.

Dear End Time Handmaidens & Servants,

I just want to thank you so very much for the wonderful convention! It was the most awesome time I've spent in God's presence with people of like precious faith! This was the first time for me. My best friend and her sister are members of ETH. I am so glad my friend kept bugging me; well actually she helped me pray and the Lord gave me favor to be able to attend. I hope that there will be many more to come in the future. Please pray that the Lord will help me know when to fast the 21 day fast so that I too will have the wonderful privilege of becoming a member of God's praying army!!

Regards, Ruby Hernandez

Dear End-Time Servants,

BREAKTHROUGH! That is what is happening in the church today. Many men should be standing in the double-portion anointing but instead are walking in the world and not in the spirit. Women rather than men have been the benefactors of this double portion anointing because they have focused upon God, not man. To the contrary, men have more often focused the world, rather than upon God. Many men have missed their anointing because they have not been willing to sacrifice...go through the trials and testing required for anointing. There is a price to pay, men of God! Sister Gwen talks about this in her book Breakthrough. [See page AD6.] Breakthrough requires surrendering our will to God. Don't remain in a prison of self-will and pride, at the expense of experiencing God's highest calling on your life.

"Break through, declare and claim your inheritance; get your vision and provision, stand up in God; take your place as a spiritual leader; be what God wants you to be!" Understand who you are in God and to whom you belong. God is bringing you into breakthrough experience. But you won't go alone, He is going before you. He will lead you where you have never gone before, and He will make a way where there doesn't seem to be a way.

Michael Woodhead, ETS

Dear Sister Gwen and ETH,

Here's a poem I wrote as I was preparing to make my first mission trip at the age of 62, many years after I felt the call of God on my life. Be encouraged to not give up even though the vision tarries long or if you have taken many side trips from God's will.

GOD'S CHOICE

If God has chosen you for service
If God has claimed your soul for life
Then any other endeavors
Thwart His Call upon your life.

If God has chosen you for service
If your hand has touched the plow
Then any other choices
Will hold misery even now!

If God has chosen you for His Service.
If you have taken another path
Your life will lose contentment
Why not obey? Too late, you ask?

No No, dear weary Pilgrim
If God gave His Call to you
He'll restore the years all eaten
By the locusts in their dew.

Arise, pick up God's mantle.
Take up your rod and take it now
If God chose you for His Service
He'll teach you how to plow.

Plow on. Dig deep and plant well.
Begin today. He'll replenish you
He'll forgive, restore and lead you
Obedience is all there's left to do.

What Is an End-Time Handmaiden?

by Sharon Buss

An End-Time Handmaiden is one who has a call of God on her life to serve Him unconditionally with trusting obedience. She surrenders her will to Him and joyfully takes up His instead. She joins Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane and says with Him, “Not my will, but Thine be done.” She takes up her cross and follows Him.

She surrenders her right to eat as she enters a 21-day fast to receive the double-portion anointing to which she is called. She is an intercessor and learns how to pray the prayers that are on the heart of the Chief Intercessor, Jesus Christ. She has a burden for the nations and will weep for souls, travailing with Paul “until Christ be formed” in them.

Every Kindred, Every Tribe: She may be of any race, kindred, tongue or tribe, but she loves and serves Jesus as Her Bridegroom and soon-coming King. She may differ in many ways in her culture and physical appearance from other End-Time Handmaidens—she may be tall or short, large or small, young or old, in a wheelchair or strong, but she perseveres in prayer and brings forth the fruit of the Kingdom of God in the earth.

She knows with Paul that she is in a relay race and carries the baton with faithfulness to her calling, ready to pass it on to the next generation when her lap is finished.

She may be called to preach or she may be hidden in the prayer closet. She may travel to another nation and spend the rest of her life serving the Lord there or she may make many short trips to mission fields, coming home to work and raise money for her next journey, or she may simply travel on her knees, touching souls by her intercessions. She may be called to the church or the streets or the workplace, but she knows she’s called. And if she fails or falls, she knows to repent and get up and go on to fulfil her destiny.

She may be an apostle, a prophetess, an evangelist, pastor or teacher, or she may be a prayer warrior. She may be a doctor, attorney, teacher, nurse, computer technician, housewife, real estate agent, student, pilot, flight attendant, cook or mayor. The call manifests in many ways. She blooms where she is planted. She has a call to press into God and go beyond the limitations of her natural circumstances into the limitlessness of His Kingdom.

She is a worshipper. Whether she can sing in tune or not, whether she can dance with rhythm and beauty in man’s eyes or not, whether she can play an instrument or not, her heart is toward her Beloved Bridegroom and to Him her “voice is sweet and her countenance is comely.”

She may be loud and bombastic or quiet and subdued—or both, depending on the move of the Holy Spirit. End-Time Handmaidens are all individuals and diverse—each one is unique. They all bear a certain mark of a calling of God in their spirit.

Raised up of God to call out the ETH: Sister Gwen Shaw received a call of God in her youth and was a missionary to China, going there by faith in 1947 with only $10 in her pocket and no promise of support. When China closed, she continued to work in Taiwan and Hong Kong for many years. In 1963, she was led by the Lord to fast for 21 days and the Lord gave her a double portion anointing. She began to go to the nations and a trail of revival fire followed her wherever she went. She went many times to India, her great love. She wanted to lay her life down for the Lord in the Himalayan Mountains, her love for India was so great. But one day while walking down the street in New Delhi, the Lord spoke to her and asked, “Would you be willing to lay down your desire to be a martyr for Me in the Himalayas?”

She responded, “Lord, I have given you everything — do I have to give up my heart’s desire too?”

“But, what if I have a better plan for you? Would you be willing?” Knowing she could trust Him, she agreed.

In 1970, when she was on a water fast, Sister Gwen received the word of the Lord from a prophet of God. He said an angel met him and told him to go to her and give her the word that “She is raised up of God to call out the End-Time Handmaidens.”

Sympathetic Vibrations: Have you ever been around a piano when a loud noise happens? If someone shouts or sings loudly, or if something is dropped and it causes a loud sound, the string or strings that have the same wave length as that sound will begin to vibrate in

What Is an End-Time Servant?

An End-Time Servant comes out of a special class of men. Not many men are humble enough to come under a name like End-Time Handmaidens, or not look sheepish when asked “You’re an End-Time Handmaiden?” It takes a special class of man to support his wife, or a woman in ministry, that could perhaps have more anointing than he does, and to release her to fulfill the call of God on her life, and not to be jealous of her giftings.

An End-Time Servant is one who will “follow the lamb whithersoever He goeth” Rev. 14:4. An End-Time Servant is one who is called to be a King and a Priest. He will walk like David did, a man after God’s own heart. He will walk as a man of integrity in all areas of his life, both in the spiritual and in the natural. He will walk in holiness before the Lord pressing upward into the high calling of Christ Jesus. He is strengthened by the Lord to endure all temptations, knowing that satan also has a passion for souls, his included.

He will be a worshiper, crying out for a deeper relationship with the Lord and more of His glory. Isaiah 26:9a “With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early...”

I want to encourage the men to “not let the footmen weary you” Jer. 12:5. It is time to press in to be as one of God’s Horsemen, in order to cross the “swelling of Jordan” or to combat problems that are thrown at us on a day by day basis.

When you took your vows and had Sister Gwen lay hands on you, you had an impartation given to you of this ministry “to do the Will of the Father.” There are many ministries out there doing much for the kingdom, and so many attractions to them, but I ask you to remember the land of your calling and not to forget Sister Gwen, who has paid for the “pearl of Great Price” by her life, which is imparted into you. I encourage you to pay the price, and come worship the Lord with us, and press in to what God has for us in the upcoming meetings. Don’t miss hearing what the Holy Ghost will be speaking to you. “..I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem:...” Acts 18:21

So please come to the Feast of the Lord in St. Louis in July, for one more World Convention.

Your End-Time Servant,
Philip J. Buss

“sympathy” with that sound. You will hear the piano or other stringed instrument echoing back.

The same principle applies in the spirit. When you get around someone who has the same calling in God that you have, your spirit responds with a resounding “Yes!” and you know that God’s eternal purposes are somehow involved with that encounter.

If you have heard Sister Gwen speak or you have read her articles or books and you feel something deep in your spirit saying, “Yes!,” then you might be an End-Time Handmaiden. If you are a man and you feel the same resounding “Yes!” then you might be an End-Time Servant. It takes a very special, humble, strong man to be willing to join himself to these anointed sisters in the Lord.

You Are Not an Island: If you find you have been reading a description of yourself, you need to know that you are not an island; you are a part of a vast network. God wants you to join yourself to others of “like precious faith” and calling. Come to the events the Lord is calling you to (Retreats, Camp Meetings, Conferences, International School of Ministry, World Convention, local branch meetings). Get connected to the support system—you need us and we need you. You are not alone. Just like Elijah found out that he was not alone in his ministry to God and that there were 7,000 who had not bowed their knee to Baal, you must find the fellowship of those with a calling like your own and be encouraged to be all God has called you to be. ✨

*“Behold the handmaid of the Lord;
be it unto me according to thy word.”*

Luke 1:38

Lydia is an End-Time Handmaiden who joined as a junior and participated in our Youth Retreats for years, growing up to lead praise and worship and speaking for the youth. She is now serving the Lord in Jerusalem in a house of prayer where the Lord is worshiped 24/7 with intercession for Israel and the world. This photo of her was taken at Ein Gedi, where David hid from Saul.

The Temple Mount and Islam

Shalom from Jerusalem! I have recently learned some interesting and important information that you won't be hearing from the media!!! For several weeks the Muslims were sneaking young men into the city and forming groups of about 100 each. These young men were brought in as preparation for what the leaders were calling the Al-Aqsa War, which is the name of their mosque on the Temple Mount. These leaders were broadcasting in surrounding Arab nations that Israel was going to shut the Temple Mount down and take away the control of it, so they were trying to get all of their people in place. Just in case you didn't know, Israel technically owns the Temple Mount but they allow the Jordanians to run it and have their people on it as security.

At the beginning of Succoth (Feast of the Tabernacles) these young men actually started a riot in which people were injured. Since then the police have found a number of wheel barrows full of stones hidden away on the Mount which the Muslims were going to throw down on the people praying at the Wailing Wall. Then the police had the Temple Mount shut down to all Muslims except men over 50 and women. Please continue to pray for covering over Jerusalem and that the plans of the enemy would be thwarted before they can be acted upon. Praise the Lord they were stopped before they could stone those praying at the Wall! The relative calm in Israel and Jerusalem can be changed very quickly into a war zone, so it is important to pray regularly for God's protection and covering.

We had a teaching recently that was wonderful. An anointed minister shared on "Praying in Your Prayers." The gist of it is that often we pray without engaging our spirit and becoming connected with what you are saying. It is when we pray engaged in this manner that we will see God move in powerful ways. It was so encouraging. It can happen, when you are in the prayer room 15+ hours a week, that you have a tendency to just pray stuff after a while, without really paying attention or getting connected. He used the scriptures Acts 12 and Mark 11:22-24. I encourage you all to be aware of how you are praying. Needless to say, when he was done sharing we went into a time of major "praying in your prayer" together! One thing we prayed over had to do with a vision one of the leaders received a number of years ago. He saw a picture of the area around Jerusalem and he saw four hands and arms, one on the north, south, east and west of the Old City. Each represented a house of prayer. Then he saw a throne with Lion feet come down and rest, each paw on a hand, and the glory flowed from the arms in a circle around the city (looked like a wedding band from above), and One sat on the throne, from under the throne you could see He sat heavily upon it, as if He hadn't sat there for a very long time and was glad to be sitting there once more (almost like a physical sigh). Please be praying that the four houses of prayer would be fully established!!! Two are 24/7, one is very close and I'm not sure about the fourth one. When all four are established we all believe that something MAJOR will happen in the spiritual realm.

I want to particularly remind all of you to be praying starting now. Surely you know, that the Muslims in the U.S. marched in DC and had a day of prayer in front of the capital. Pray, pray, pray!!!! This was not an event to ignore, the Muslims are perfectly aware of what kind of affect such an event could have on our nation. We must cry out for mercy on this country. God is not too small to intervene, but He will not do it unless He sees the repentance in our country that He is looking for. When God begins to call a nation back to Himself, He does it as gently as possible. Perhaps He will start with some bad weather, if that doesn't work then maybe some severe weather, such as prolonged droughts or flooding or earthquakes, tornadoes and hurricanes. Then if the people still refuse to repent He will chose something more severe, such as turning them over to someone who will put them into captivity. We have waited far too long to repent as a nation, we are on the verge of running out of time before we are placed into complete captivity and left there for a long time. America! Don't be too proud! It has happened to many other nations, it CAN happen to you! It is time for us to cry out for the church to wake up out of its deep slumber and repent. So I urge each one of you to stand with us and pray that God would turn the Muslim agenda into a revival for America.

Feast of Tabernacles

This year Succoth ended at the beginning of Shabbat (Friday evening), and then at the end of Shabbat (Saturday evening) they had Simchat Torah. This celebration is about rejoicing over the Torah (Scriptures). They had a big celebration in the park, complete with cotton candy, hot dogs and popcorn! The rabbis and men from various Yeshivahs brought their Torah scrolls and took turns getting in groups on the stage and dancing around with them. The rest of the men and boys danced together on a lower stage while the women and older girls danced in the park. It was crowded and a ton of fun! It was really neat to see so many people grinning and dancing and singing about the Word of God. I wish more of us did this! So many times we take the Word for granted. It was a precious site to see and I had a blast dancing with the women!

Miracle Testimony

Last time I was in Israel, I visited an Arab family with some friends. I have since found that God has been doing major things in their family! A girl who had been in Hamas and has become a believer is one of the daughters in this family. One of their older sons gave some amazing testimonies about the youth conference in August and things they have been doing since the conference. The father of the family had bypass surgery. During the surgery his heart stopped for four minutes. He says that he saw a golden hand come out of heaven, take his heart, clean it and then put it back. He was dead; God raised him back to life! Anyway, the next day he showed up at our prayer meeting! They told his Doctor they were going for a walk and then he unplugged himself and came to pray. The doctors flipped out when they realized he had left! God has done an amazing thing in this man's life and family. His dream is to see his town become the first here where all are believers. I think that's a wonderful dream and is a great thing to stand with him on! I was so excited when I found out last night that he is the father of the family I used to visit. I don't remember meeting him last time I was here. Praise the Lord!!! Now he is looking for work so he can catch up on bills and things like that, two weeks after his surgery! That's amazing (he is not a young man)!!!!

Pray for Rain

It rained very briefly today. This is the first time it has rained since I arrived. Please pray that the Former Rains would come!!! The rain in the Fall months is called the former rain and the rain in the Spring is the Latter Rain. Right now we are in the midst of a water crisis. The Sea of Galilee is at an all time low, and if it gets too much lower they will no longer be able to use it as a source of water. The aquifers here in Jerusalem are also basically empty. We NEED rain! Interestingly enough, it did rain shortly before I arrived and it just happened to be right after a day of repentance!

Replacement Theology

The last thing I want to share is in regards to Isaiah 19:18-25. I have been praying specifically for Egypt and Assyria (Iraq, parts of Turkey, Syria, Jordan, parts of Iran as well as a few other areas I'm not sure about). God is beginning to do a major work in Egypt in particular. He is drawing them to Israel! One of the main things that has hindered the relationship between believers in Egypt and their brothers in Israel is the belief in replacement theology. This teaching basically states that Israel is no longer relevant, that those who believe in Jesus replace Israel completely, that the promises God made to Israel which have yet to be fulfilled were really made to Believers, and Israel has no part in it. This theology is completely against the teachings of the New Testament! In Romans 9-11 we are told that Israel has everything to do with it! We become "Joint Heirs", one not better than the other, but together a mighty force. I have been praying over this issue and speaking into it. There are a number of believers in Egypt who are finding that this theology is not the truth, but since it is so heavily rooted in their congregations, along with a hate for Israel, it has been difficult for them to overcome it. But they WILL overcome it!!! Pray for God to remove it by the root! The youth of Egypt are the ones beginning to see this truth, and it is difficult for them since the older leaders have not had this revelation yet.

Many blessings to you all as you chase after Him!

Lydia is just one of many End-Time Handmaidens and Servants who are faithfully serving the Lord in prayer and worship for the Land of Israel. Please pray for them all, especially those who are running our House of Peace in Jerusalem and Galilee House in the North.

Special News — A Time to Celebrate!

by Gwen Shaw

Today, November 9, 2009, I held a wonderful blessing in my hands. I received my first copy of Day By Day in the German language. This is a day of great victory. Twenty years ago today, the Berlin Wall came down. What a day to celebrate! My heart is filled with joy. This Daily Devotional is read by thousands in English, French; and now in we have it in German!

I pray that some day it will be available in Spanish also. People need it! Many have read it over and over again since it was published. We send it free to prisoners in the USA, and many write to tell me how they have been saved and their lives have been changed through this book. I received a letter today from a woman who is serving a long prison term, who said she has read it faithfully for nine years. Now it has fallen apart. She didn't ask for it, but I sent her a new book! In this way, we can go into all the prisons of America. If you have a loved one in prison, or have ever served time in prison, why don't you help me send out books free of charge! Any size gift will be a help. The postage is costly for us. But you can "go to the prisons" with us by way of this precious gift. Jesus said that on the Judgment Day your kind deed will be remembered, "I was in prison, and you came unto me" (Matthew 25:36). When you visit a prisoner, you visit Jesus.

If you have never read it, you need to get a copy immediately. Give one to a friend who has lost his job, or is facing a serious illness. It is a gift that they will appreciate every day of the year. Even sinners are blessed by it. People need to hear a word from God in these hard times. You can be the "angel-messenger" that will get this comforting, encouraging message to them. DO IT NOW! ✨

Nothing Shall Offend You

Scripture Reading—Psalm 119:161-168

"Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them!" (Psalm 119:165)

There is a place of rest in Me where you are dead to the things of the world. In Me there is perfect rest and peace because the Holy Spirit is The Rest and I am The Prince of Peace.

You are living at a time when many satanic spirits have been released upon the world, but fear not; I am your hiding place and My Word is your comfort. As you meditate on My Word, and not on the evil which Satan perpetuates, you can have perfect peace in the midst of the storm and this will save you from spiritual shipwreck.

For in these evil days all are under attack, but many do not know how to flee to Me for refuge in the storm. Instead of turning to My Word for comfort and strength, they turn to each other and keep talking about their problems and trials. This multiplies them. Satan wants you to be overcome by turmoil, confusion and fear. I call you to rest your case in My hands. Let Me plead your cause.

When a defendant stands on trial, he is advised to not speak, except to answer the questions that are put to him. So I tell you first of all, find rest in Me and don't talk too much, so that none of these things need to upset you nor overwhelm you. Satan's plan is to agitate you and rob you of your peace. Instead of spending your time talking about it, read My Word.

Put your faith in Me and let Me bring you through into true victory. So many of My children are offended by the things which they suffer at the hands of their brothers and sisters. But the closer you are to Me and the more you love My Word, the less you are affected by the attacks of the evil one. He will use even those closest to you to try to cause you to be hurt and made angry or bitter. But don't allow it to offend you. Rise above it. Don't fight back. Let Me defend you. Hide yourself in My Word. Let the Word wash you and make you clean of all that offends.

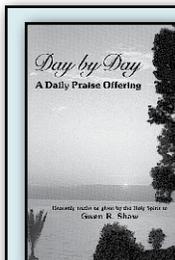

It Is Time For God To Work

Scripture Reading—Psalm 119:121-128

"It is time for thee, Lord, to work: for they have made void thy law." (Psalm 119:126)

It is important that My anointed ones know the times and seasons of My workings. But it takes something special to live in this special place where you know the ways and movings of My Holy Spirit. There is one special qualification: a tremendous longing for Me, gendered by a great love.

Many of My children, who have been touched and blessed and used by Me to show My glory to this generation, have become so involved in building their own "ministry kingdom" that they really have no true desire to see My return. They have begun to love their own works and their own accomplishments more than Me. As a result, they have become complacent and settled in their ways.

Stir yourself up, beloved. Never be content with what I have accomplished through your life in the past. Always long for more of Me and desire more of My glory, for I have ordained that the best is yet to come. My people have only touched the outer fringes of My tabernacle. Many have never seen the inner sanctuary workings of My Spirit in their lives, and it is growing late. Time is running out.

I beseech you to stir up yourself, and cry out to Me, that I would do My mighty works in your life.

Yes, the end-time is here. It is time for Me to work. Fear not what people may say or think. Open your heart, and let the love that is in you for Me become enlarged and stirred up to yearn for Me to do new things in your life. Never be satisfied with your present experience in Me. Always reach out for Me to do a greater work, both in you and through you, and then in all this generation. For indeed, the time has come for Me to work. It is the dawning of a new day. Reach out, beloved, and let Me carry you over the threshold into this new day which is even now coming up over the horizon.

Don't give up! It is but one minute before the sunrise, and the time has come for Me to work the work in your life for which you were born. ✨
