Sigi and I — Gwen Shaw. An international best-seller when it was first written in the 1970's, this exciting story about Sister Gwen's adventures smuggling Bibles behind the Iron Curtain with her co-worker Sigi will grip your heart with excitement. Although the Iron Curtain has come down, the anti-Christ spirit that made the Word of God illegal is gaining strength. Read this book and be filled with courage, receiving the challenge from God to go beyond your fears and obey Him

A former Shi'ite Muslim, Kamran Yaraei was an unforgettable speaker at the World Convention. His book is equally unforgettable, heart-searching and life-changing.

Food for the Heart — Kamran Yaraei. This book is a compilation of 111 messages from Kamran's deep and extraordinary relationship with Jesus Christ. Since his transformation in 2000, Kamran spends much of his time walking and conversing with God. He has faithfully recorded these experiences in journals. Kamran has had many encounters with God. His writings are very unique and simple and will help people connect to God in a fresh way. The main themes are the condition of our hearts, passionate relationships, love beyond what we experience, and much more. These messages are very poetic in nature, coming from an elegant and sensitive heart connection with God

Sword of Love — Gwen Shaw. We have brought this fascinating true story of our high adventures in Pakistan and Bangladesh out of the archives because Pakistan is playing a very important role in today's news, and many do not know the true story of the history of Pakistan. We were there when it happened. We have preached the Gospel to the parents of today's Taliban. We have seen God do miracles, signs and wonders among the people whose sons we are fighting today
